

Canadian Books in School Libraries: Raising the Profile, a recent research report published by the Association of Canadian Publishers, states that 65% of teachers and 50% of principals cited lack of awareness of Canadian books as the main barrier to having more Canadian books in school libraries.

Don't let this be the case in your jurisdiction!

Now for as little as $30.00 (+ GST) per school you can have a bulk subscription to the most comprehensive print reviewing journal in Canada covering Canadian resources for children and young adults in English and French.

Published 5 times per year it contains reviews of Canadian children's and young adult books, audio-visual materials, CD-ROM, and Internet sites as well as professional materials of interest to teachers and teacher-librarians.

Lists of award-winning titles, "the year's best", an annual index and a variety of feature articles are also included.

Make sure your teacher-librarians, teachers and principals keep in touch with the latest in Canadian titles by ordering your bulk subscription now.
